CALL FOR PROPOSALS

The Center for Excellence in Teaching, Learning, and Assessment (CETLA), will mark a significant milestone as it celebrates its Twentieth Anniversary. To commemorate this momentous occasion, we are excited to announce our upcoming conference, "The Next Frontier: AI and Beyond."

This conference promises to be a platform for groundbreaking discussions, insightful presentations, and the exchange of innovative ideas.

We invite Howard University Faculty to participate by submitting proposals to serve on presenters' panels and/or to share digital poster board that will contribute to the vibrant tapestry of knowledge-sharing and exploration at this remarkable event.
