

9TH ANNUAL INTERPROFESSIONAL EDUCATION WORKSHOP

Arts, Humanities, Health Justice: An Interprofessional Collaboration to Healing

Wednesday, April 3, 2024

9:00 AM to 3:00 PM

Blackburn Auditorium

SPEAKERS

Dana Williams, Ph.D.

*Executive Director MHHJ,
HU Professor of African American Literature and Graduate School Dean*

Lakshmi Krishnan, MD, Ph.D.

Executive Director MHHJ

Dr. Sharon King

*Visual and Performance Artist,
Cultural Anthropologist and Arts Educator
Founder, A MINOR ENTERPRISE*

Benefits of Attending

- ✓ Understand why interprofessional collaboration is important to you.
- ✓ Enhance your interprofessional communication skills.
- ✓ Understand medical humanities and the intersection between health providers, art, and health outcomes.
- ✓ Understand the value of art as a healing form in patient care.
- ✓ Hear from a real patient where art improved their quality of life.
- ✓ Engage in activities with students from across campus to broaden your networks.

REGISTER HERE!

Special Presentation:
Dean Phylicia Rashad

*Inaugural Chairholder of The Toni Morrison
Endowed Chair in Arts and Humanities*